WALTON GOODLAND

LOCATION

The Little Chamonix Café occupies an enviable location at the very heart of Keswick Town Centre fronting on to the pedestrianised Lake Road where it forms a small niche piazza type setting with outdoor tables from surrounding premises.

Adjoining occupiers include Lakeland and The Orchid House along with the Dog & Gun Pub opposite, Treeby and Bolton and The Lake Road Inn.

Keswick is an extremely popular tourist destination at the heart of the Northern Lake District Fells bordering Derwent Water. Known as the outdoor pursuits capital of the UK the town is a year round tourist hot spot for outdoor adventure enthusiasts, boasting a buoyant hospitality and leisure sector.

Keswick is approx. 15 miles west of Junction 40 of the M6/A66 and 30 miles north of Kendal being the gateway to the northern and western Lake District, including Derwent Water, Bassenthwaite and Ullswater.

BUSINESS

The Little Chamonix Café is named after one of the UK's most popular and photographed multi-pitch climbing routes located nearby in the renowned Borrowdale Valley 5km south of the town.

Established by the current owners in 2015 the business has been successfully trading now for approximately 6 years providing for a rewarding lifestyle with a good mix of regular local customers, tourists, day trippers and repeat business.

Serving breakfast and lunch plates along with homemade cakes, the café is popular throughout the day with walkers setting off and returning from the fells as well as day trippers descending on the town.

The business employs 3 full time (including the owner) and 4 part time staff and currently opens between the hours of 10:00 and 16:00, Wednesday to Sunday.

Offering both eat-in and take-away options the café caters for 40 covers dealing with renowned local suppliers. An opportunity exists to increase the opening hours and menu.

The business presents an established opportunity for someone to create a new lifestyle with the back drop of one of the most beautiful locations in the world.

Accounting information can be made available to bona-fide interested parties subject to viewing the property and/or following further discussions with the selling agents.
